Green Bay REA Vendor Membership is subject to these terms and conditions:

The information presented at Green Bay REA meetings is presented to inform and educate our members and guests. Speakers and their staff are expressing their own ideas, opinions, and business values. The vendor member agrees to deliver quality material to the club members and guests during all business relationships. The vendor member will honor all member and guest requests for a full refund, if requested, and execute that action within thirty days of the request.

The vendor member agrees to follow a Code of Business Conduct that is fair and honest to our members and guests. Green Bay REA, LLC seeks 100% member and guest satisfaction or their money is returned. The annual vendor membership fee is fully earned for the year and non-refundable from initial day of becoming a vendor member.

I hereby acknowledge and agree to the above terms and conditions. I release and waive from all liability Green Bay REA, LLC, its managers, members, owners, staff and affiliates due to the Vendor member's participation in club meetings, seminars or network gathering. Vendor will provide all their own insurance protection including Comprehensive General Liability, Worker's Compensation, Auto Liability and Umbrella Liability for themselves, employees, and staff. Vendor accepts their own liability and the clubs assume theirs as well.
