Parental Commitment

St. John's Lutheran School is dedicated to instructing your child in God's Word. This includes training in Christian living according to the example set by Jesus. It is important that the values and teachings we instill in your child are supported by the home environment. As such, we ask for your commitment in supporting our mission by signing the following statement:

If my (our) child enrolls at St. John's, I (we) pledge to cooperate fully with the teachers in upholding and promoting the Christian training and discipline of the school. This will include reading and following the policies and procedures of the school as found in the school handbook. I (we) will attend worship services and Sunday School (if offered) at my (our) own church or at St. John's Lutheran Church. We will attend five short Adult Information Classes as offered by St. John's in order to become familiar with my (our) child's religious instruction at St. John's. I (we) will see that my (our) child is punctual and regular in his or her school attendance. I (we) will be a good example for my my (our) child, by doing all in my (our) power with the help of God, to be an example to my (our) child in my (our) conduct, speech, and service to God.
