

Fall 2009 CDPI Conference
 University of Southern Indiana
 Evansville, IN
 Friday, October 30, 2009

“Green: A Color for all seasons”

Conference Overview

This year’s CDPI Fall Conference will focus on Sustainability, from eco-friendly initiatives to sustaining the Career Services profession. Announcements will be posted on the CDPI Conference Blog up to the date of the conference, so please check the site often for more information, including pre-conference activities, accommodations, etc.

Conference Blog Site: <http://cdpiconferenceinfo.blogspot.com>

Possible Breakout Session Topics

The breakout sessions will take the concept of Sustainability in 4 different directions: Data, Things, Ideas, and People. Each of the four areas will offer exciting new information on topics such as “Green” buildings and environmental initiatives, best practices in the Career Services field, and sustaining the field as a whole. As sessions are organized, more details will be posted on the Blog site.

Tentative Conference Schedule (all times listed Central Daylight Time)

Thursday, October 29, 2009

2:00-4:00pm - “On Your Way Open House” Take a break from your drive south and stop in at Vincennes University for an Open House, meet and greet the VU Career Services Department.

6:00-8:00pm - Pre-Conference Reception Get acquainted with your fellow conference attendees at the Ridgeway Center on the campus of the University of Evansville. Enjoy hors de oeuvres and unwind before Friday’s conference.

Friday, October 30, 2009 (All events held on USI campus, all times subject to change)

7:30-8:00am	Registration	11:30-12:45pm	LUNCH
8:00-8:15am	Welcome & Announcements	1:00-1:45pm	Breakout Session 3
8:15-9:15am	Keynote Speaker	2:00-3:00pm	Employer Panel
9:30-10:15am	Breakout Session 1	3:00-3:30pm	Concluding Remarks & Closing
10:30-11:15pm	Breakout Session 2	3:30pm	Adjournment

DATA

THINGS

IDEAS

PEOPLE

Keynote Address:

Ms. Teresa L. Voors, Commissioner - IN Dept of Workforce Development

Governor Daniels appointed Teresa L. Voors as the first female Commissioner of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development on September 21, 2007. Prior to her appointment, she served as Deputy Commissioner and Chief Counsel of the agency. She received her law degree from Indiana University Bloomington, where she graduated in the top 2% of her class and served as managing editor of the Law Review. Before joining public service, she litigated employment law cases at Baker and Daniels in Indianapolis. She grew up in Fort Wayne, Indiana and received her bachelor’s degree in business accounting from Indiana Purdue University Fort Wayne. She passed the CPA exam and worked as a financial analyst for GTE Data Services in Fort Wayne before attending law school. Commissioner Voors currently lives in Zionsville.

Ms. Gina DelSanto, Senior Deputy Commissioner of Agency Policy & Performance (INDWD)

Gina DelSanto is a native of Cranston, Rhode Island and graduated from the University of Rhode Island, majoring in Modern Foreign Languages. She attended graduate school at Indiana University, Bloomington, receiving an MA and a Ph.D. emphasizing critical theory, literature and film, and medieval studies. In 1993, DelSanto accepted a position in the office of U.S Senator Richard G. Lugar, first as Special Assistant for Affairs of State, Immigration and Education, and later as Director of Outreach. In 2000, DelSanto joined Butler University as the director of the Learning Resource Center and subsequently as Associate Provost for Academic Affairs. She served as policy coordinator for the Mitch Daniels for Governor campaign and was a founding member of the Dean’s Council for Indiana University’s School of Informatics. Has served as a member of Indiana’s Education Roundtable and State Workforce Innovation Council, and is a board member for Goodwill Education Initiatives, the organization holding the charter for the Indianapolis Metropolitan High School.

CDPI 2009 Fall Conference

"Green: A Color for all Seasons"

At the University of Southern Indiana, Evansville, IN
Friday, October 30, 2009

<http://cdpiconferenceinfo.blogspot.com>

REGISTRATION FORM

Mail registrations to address listed below for processing.
Or complete and submit this registration form by fax to (812) 464-1958.

Name:
University/Organization:
Job Title:
Mailing Address:
Phone:
Fax:
E-Mail Address:

Registration Fee:

- $25 Graduate Student Rate
- $40 Member Rate
- $60 Non-Member Rate

Event Attendance (Check all you plan to attend)

- On Your Way Open House at Vincennes Univ.
- Pre-Conference Reception at Univ. of Evansville
- CDPI Conference at Univ. of Southern Indiana

Options:

- I would like the vegetarian meal option
- I am interested in having a roommate for hotel accommodations

Additional Questions?

Contact Phil Parker, CDPI Conference Chair
plparker@usi.edu

Mail check payment to: Phil Parker, Career Services & Placement, University of Southern Indiana
8600 University Boulevard, Evansville, IN 47712

An invoice for payment will be emailed to you. Make checks payable to CDPI.

DATA  THINGS  IDEAS  PEOPLE

SPONSORED BY:

GOLD:

BRONZE:

Conference City Information

Evansville, IN

Evansville has many exciting things to offer; CDPI is pleased to have the 2009 Fall Conference hosted in this river city. We are here to provide you with some information to make your planning a little easier. We hope you find your visit to the Tri-State enjoyable!

Accommodations

The University of Southern Indiana has a group rate at the Fairfield Inn Evansville West. To save on lodging costs, consider rooming with another CDPI attendee. If you are interested in having a roommate, please indicate on your registration form. Interested parties will be put in touch to make arrangements.

Please mention "USI" to receive the discounted rate of $70.

Restaurants & Activities

Should you decide to explore Evansville and see all it has to offer, please utilize the following websites to get all the necessary information on great local restaurants, activities, night life, and more. Extend your visit into the weekend and enjoy your stay!

www.evansvilleliving.com
www.evansvillecvb.org
www.evansvillegov.org
www.downtownevansville.org