BOOK SIGNING: ALEXANDRIA'S OWN VICKI ALLEN

ALEXANDRIA, La., May 19, 2009—This summer, the perfect complement to CENLA's hot muggy weather could be a cool trip to Mexico—presented between the covers of Alexandria Pharmacist and Pineville resident Vicki Allen's fourth novel, Drink One To Me, Christian Bennett. A tale of drama, romance and adventure, Drink One to Me, Christian Bennett transports readers to the exotic locales and quaint villages of Mexico, the Bahamas and beyond.

Born youngest of four children into a large family of old money, American photographer Abigail Christensen entered a world already expecting great things of her, and spent her entire life trying to conform, striving to please a family she knew she never could. Finally breaking free of stifling conventionality, she travels with her brother to Mexico, drifting from province to province as she captures photographs for an upcoming exhibit, wishing she had settled for the monotony of her previous lifestyle when she attracts the attention of legendary drug lord, Esai Molinero.

With a fast-paced story and a lovable heroine, Drink One to Me, Christian Bennett is summer vacation reading at its best.
