A Christmas Carol

In the bleak mid-winter
Frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron,
Water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
Snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter
Long ago.

Our God, Heaven cannot hold Him
Nor earth sustain;
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When He comes to reign:
In the bleak mid-winter
A stable-place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty,
Jesus Christ.

Enough for Him, whom cherubim
Worship night and day,
A breastful of milk
And a mangerful of hay;
Enough for Him, whom angels
Fall down before,
The ox and ass and camel
Which adore.

Angels and archangels
May have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim
Thronged the air,
But only His mother
In her maiden bliss,
Worshipped the Beloved
With a kiss.

What can I give Him,
Poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb,
If I were a wise man
I would do my part,
Yet what can I give Him,
Give my heart.

...Christmas Offering...

Each year, many people spend money on gifts for friends and family to celebrate the birth of Jesus. And if you are like me, you cannot remember what you got for Christmas three years ago. What if you could give a gift that would be remembered longer than three years? What if you could give a gift that has eternal significance?

During the month of December, our church will minister to more people than we have seen all year. December is statistically the most charitable and hospitable month and is the best opportunity our church will have to connect with many people who are unchurched and/or in need of assistance. Over the last year, we have seen an increase in our outreach and missions as we serve more people and share the love and grace of Jesus Christ.

On December 22, we are asking for 100% of the people at Bethlehem First UMC to give their largest Christmas gift to Jesus. As we have all heard recently through the Stewardship Journey, there are many great things happening at Bethlehem First UMC and your gift this Christmas will continue to allow our church "to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Inside today's newsletter, you will find an envelope for you to use in making your Christmas gift to Jesus. If you cannot access an envelope and would still like to give a Christmas offering, please designate that your gift as "Christmas Offering." You can also give online at bigwhitechurch.com/donations. Click the Online Giving link on the left side of the page and follow the instructions to log in (don't forget to designate your gift as "Christmas Offering").

Please prayerfully consider this Christmas Offering and prepare to participate on December 22. We will be collecting this special offering in all worship services. If you know you will not be in worship on December 22, you may send your offering to the church office early.

Thank you for your prayers and participation in this special offering. Have a wonderful Christmas!

Blessings!

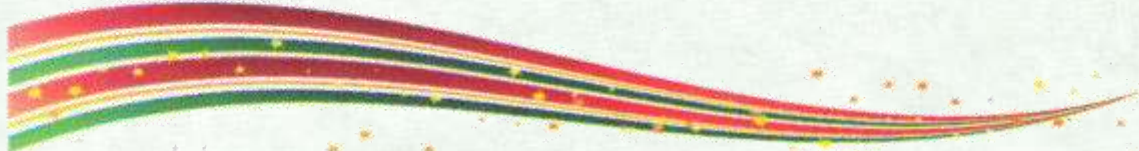

Rev. Matt Parker
Associate Pastor

Christmas Offering

Sunday, December 22, 2013

Make check payable to BFUMC and note as "Christmas Offering"

Bethlehem First United Methodist Church

THANK YOU!... To the BFUMC Crochet Group

A sweet lady who has no family and suffering from cancer received a crocheted hat from the BFUMC crochet group. According to her caregiver, she was so appreciative and said it felt like an early Christmas present. The caregiver sent our group a note saying, "Thank you all for what you do. You will never know how much these sweet people need and appreciate it."

The members of the BFUMC Crochet Group are: June Baggett, Sue Breedlove, Sandy Brooks, Joyce Corbin, Cindy Crawley, Tonya Dillard, Mary Lee Howard, Judy Neel, Rodney Radford, Judy Rainwater, and Lynn Smith.

The BFUMC Crochet Group has crocheted 15 prayer shawls, 195 caps for Northeast Georgia Cancer Care and Northside Hospital Cancer Center, 24 for STMH Neonatal ICU and 65 for the Appalachian Trail recipients through Nudge Ministries. For more info contact group leader - June Baggett, 770-868-0273.

Left to Right:
Rodney Radford, Judy Rainwater, Lynn Smith, June Baggett, Joyce Corbin, and Sue Breedlove

My life is but a weaving
Between my Lord and me,
I cannot choose the colors
He worketh steadily.

Ofttimes he weaveth sorrow,
And I in foolish pride
Forget he sees the upper
And I, the underside.

Not 'til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why.

The dark threads are as needful
In the Weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern he has planned.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

God's Love in Action

There are times when every one of us experiences difficulties- loss of a loved one, spiritual crisis, illness, hospitalization, imprisonment, disability, discouragement, divorce, rehabilitation, job loss, loneliness, or other life challenges.

God never intended for us to go through these experiences alone. That's why God has brought us together as a congregation - and why we have Stephen Ministry.

Stephen Ministers are members of our congregation who receive 50 hours of caregiving training to minister to people experiencing a crisis, facing a challenge, or simply going through a tough time.

A Stephen Minister will meet with their assigned care receiver on a weekly basis-privately and confidentially to listen care, encourage, support, and remind them of Christ's presence in their life.

If you'd like to learn more about Stephen Ministry for yourself, a family member, friend, neighbor, co-worker, or someone else you know - inside or outside our congregation - talk with one our pastors or Stephen Leaders:

MY FAITH PROMISE TO Bethlehem First UMC Making Disciples of Jesus Christ

Across the Street ~
Around the World

Now I Know Why~~~ (It is called a Faith Promise)

Years ago I loaned money to a friend. I loaned the money knowing that I might never get it back. Years have gone by. This week, that friend who I haven't seen or heard from in a long time called me and left a message saying, "I am working a good paying job. I will be sending the money I owe you." I called him back and we had a nice conversation.

After I had hung up the phone it hit me - - God had just provided the rest of my Faith Promise pledge! (God is Good, All the Time! All the Time, God is Good!)

I was introduced to Faith Promise in the 1970's. Since then I have heard many, many testimonies of how God supplied the funds when someone stepped out on faith and made a pledge. Now I have my own personal story to share.

If you made a faith promise pledge at our Global Impact Celebration in 2013, remember, it is by faith and asking God to provide beyond what we have budgeted that we fulfill this promise. So, be sure to have your eyes open when He provides the funds for your faith promise pledge. May you recognize it and rejoice as I have done! —Rich Tuttle

Twas the Diet After Christmas

Twas the day after Christmas, and all through the house
 Nothing would fit me, not even a blouse.

The cookies I'd nibbled, the eggnog I'd taste

At the holiday parties had gone to my waist.
 When I got on the scales
 there arose such a number!
 When I walked to the store
 (less a walk than a lumber).

I'd remember the marvelous meals I'd prepared;

The gravies and sauces
 and beef nicely rared,
 The wine and the rum balls,
 the bread and the cheese

And the way I'd never said,
 "No thank you, please."

As I dressed myself

in my husband's old shirt
 And prepared once again to do battle with dirt—
 I said to myself, as I only can "You can't spend a winter disguised as a man!"

So—away with the last of the sour cream dip,
 Get ride of the fruit cake,
 every cracker and chip
 Every last bit of food that I like must be banished

'Till all the additional ounces have vanished.

I won't have a cookie not even a lick.

I'll want only to chew on a long celery stick.

I won't have hot biscuits,
 or corn bread, or pie,

I'll munch on a carrot and quietly cry.

I'm hungry, I'm lonesome, and life is a bore -

But isn't that what January is for?
 Unable to giggle, no longer a riot.
 Happy New Year to all and to all a good diet!
