Making Disciples of Jesus Christ

In God we trust?

We've all heard the phrase "In God we trust," it's even printed on our money, but do we really trust God in every area of our lives? We trust Him with our families, health, problems & issues we face, even with our personal salvation; but when it comes to our money, well many of us doubt that He understands finances. God wants us to trust Him in every area of our lives, including our finances. In fact the Bible has a lot to say about money. There are more verses dealing with the subject of money & possessions than with prayer & faith combined. God knows the number one competition He faces for our heart is not the devil; His number one competition is money & possessions, our stuff. That's why He addresses it so often in the Bible. That's why we're going to look at God's financial plan and ask ourselves the question, do I really trust God in every area of my life, including my finances?

GOD'S FINANCIAL PLAN

In God we trust? - Part 1 of 4

Also see: Proverbs 3:9-10 & Deuteronomy 14:23

3. SAVE FOR THE _____.

"The wise man saves for the future, but the foolish man spends whatever he gets." Proverbs 21:20

21:20

Also see: Proverbs 13:11 (NCV)

4. REPAY _____.

"Don't withhold repayment of your debts."

Proverbs 3:27 (LB)

- Not Keeping _____.

5. ENJOY _____.

Ecclesiastes 6:9 (GN)

Keeping Priorities in Line

by John Ed Mathison

There was a family with several kids, and the father was an incredibly talented man—everything he touched turned to God. He got raise after raise, after raise, and they moved out of one house and into another, and out of that house and into another, and they ended up in a big house by the lake. Along the way, he found less and less time for family devotions. Then he gave up coming to Sunday worship. He just didn't have the time.

From the outside, the family looked like a total success; but on the inside, it was falling apart. One of their teenage daughters came to visit me one day, and I'll never forget it.

She was crying and here's what she said: “You know what's happened to my family? We used to pray together as a family. We used to love each other. We used to come to church together. Now we don't. Daddy doesn't have time.” She said,

Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Matthew 6:33

“John Ed, I want you to pray for something unusual. I want you to pray that my daddy will lose his job and we have to go back to the way things used to be.”

I wish I could tell you that the story had a happy ending, but it doesn't. That girl's father did end up losing his job, but it was due to the fact that he had become an alcoholic. He was so driven by the pursuit of money, that he drove his family away and ended up losing everything he had.

See, when we hold so tightly to money that it becomes the most important thing in our lives, everything else gets out of whack. Matthew 6:33 instructs us to make the Kingdom of God our primary concern, and when anything else takes first place, it becomes an idol. And we know how God feels about us having idols. They're listed in the “thou shalt nots” of the Ten Commandments.

One of the ways to loosen our grip on money is to give it back to God. Giving reminds us that God has given us everything we have anyway.
