

JESSE JAMES

More Dead Than Alive

On April 7, 2012 at 4:00 p.m. at the Jesse James Farm and Museum in Kearney, Missouri, Lee Ward, owner of the Museum of Funeral History in Independence, Missouri, will present a program about the death of Jesse James and what became of his body -- from the embalming at Seidenfaden's Funeral Parlor in St Joseph to the photography of Jesse's body in the coffin by James W. Graham. Mr. Ward will cover all aspects of the 19th century funerary practice and how it related to the preservation of Jesse's body.

The event is free and open to the public.
Regular fees apply for museum admission.
