

Sharp Payroll Referral Reward Terms

1. Any and all referrals that are to be officially credited by the Sharp Payroll Customer Referral Program must be documented and agreed to by the referred client in the initial contract signed by that client. If there is no documentation of the referral in the initial contract, then Sharp Payroll is not obligated to provide any compensation for the referral, unless otherwise specifically documented.
2. Referral payouts are awarded only for new customers with referred client. Any future services will not be considered a referral, and the referrer will not be awarded any referral payouts for those services rendered.
3. If you choose to receive Sharp Payroll Service Credit as your reward, all referral service credits will be applied to your payroll processing fees.
4. Sharp Payroll reserves the right to change or modify this program without notice. Sharp Payroll has sole authority over the referral process and all aspects of the program are governed by Sharp Payroll management. Sharp Payroll shall be the ruling authority over any and all disputes and any decisions made by Sharp Payroll are final.
